

GUEST DAY GUIDELINES

Brassies guest day is a tournament played to encourage new members to join the organization.

Brassie members may invite a guest (guests) that meet the current requirements (index 20.4 or less) to become a member of the organization.

Guests will play with their respective Brassie member.

Guests will not compete for prize money from the Brassie treasury. Money will be collected from each guest for prizes at registration if they choose to compete.

All guests will be in a separate flight designated for guests. Both Low Gross and Low net will be paid.

One par three will be designated for guests closest to the pin. This prize will be from Brassies.
